

BROUSSARD SEES DISASTER COMING

Democratic Senator-Elect Bitter
Toward Administration
Tariff Policy.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Washington, July 19.—Representative Robert Broussard, of Louisiana, Senator-elect, is opposed to the Democratic tariff revision as proposed in the Senate bill because he thinks that it will destroy legitimate business and industries in the United States, and will tie the hands of the government in its authorized instructions under the bill to secure more favorable tariff terms from foreign countries.

"Governor Foss, of Massachusetts, is situated more fortunately in his business activities than many others who are affected by the Democratic legislation," commented Mr. Broussard.

"He can pick up his manufacturing plant in Massachusetts and transfer it to Canada, where, under more favorable laws, he can continue to do business at a profit. It is unreasonable in any one to assert that he shall not conduct his business at a profit."

The sugar planter of Louisiana, who cannot grow sugar cane at a profit under free sugar, cannot pick up their plantations and remove them to a country where the law encourages instead of destroying industry and the development of the productivity of the soil.

The present conditions in Mexico and the diplomatic situation in this country do not encourage the Louisiana planter to try and experiment there. The sugar planter can hope that only in a few years the Democrats may see their mistake and repeal the law.

"It would be comical were it not for the tragedy that lies in the ruin of the Louisiana planter, to watch the efforts of the Department of Agriculture to find some other plant or farm product that the Louisiana sugar planters may grow with profit after their sugar cane crop has been ruined by the law."

Experts of the department have issued a bulletin recently telling of the adaptability of the Louisiana soil to certain plants, but it is unknown to me, and I have tried to follow agricultural development in the South.

"Secretary Redfield, of the Department of Commerce, is to send experts into Louisiana to study for three years just what it costs to raise and market sugar cane in that State. It is the policy of those in the administration who are forcing free sugar to doubt the correctness of such data which have been furnished by the sugar planters."

"They overlook the fact that in these three years many of the present planters will have their mortgages foreclosed and that ruin will be upon them. Each year's campaign to repeal the tariff is a campaign to bring in the mortgage money needed to bring in the mortgage interest. Most of the planters have mortgages on their plantations, because the necessary equipment is expensive, and there is much outlay between the planting and the harvesting of the crop."

"Some of the sugar cane land is adaptable to the growth of corn and grass. The owners of such lands are fortunate, because the majority of cane land is unfit for other crops so far as now known. I will not plant sugar cane next year."

"There is no justification in my mind for a tariff reduction by Democrats that will destroy a great farming industry. I think that the Democrats could have provided more wisely by tariff legislation conserving farming interests, and through reciprocal agreements with other countries secured most advantageous tariff terms to the producing interests of each country."

GIRL DROWNS AT CAROLINA BEACH

Wilmington, N. C., July 19.—Miss Grace Hardesty, of Baltimore, Md., met death in the water at Carolina Beach, near this city, today. She was enjoying the sport of swimming and evidently suffered from cramps, and suddenly fell over into the water on her back. The water was only a few feet deep, but before she could be rescued she had drowned. The scene was an isolated beach, and the girl was alone. She was about 18 years of age and was visiting her mother, Mrs. Charles T. Harper, of this city.

An End To The Curse Of Wearing Worthless Trusses

No More Rupture Troubles
60 Days Trial
To Prove It

You Don't Have to Risk A Penny.

There is something absolutely guaranteed to keep your rupture from coming back again. And you can try it today—make a trial purchase of our Clute Automatic Truss—without paying a cent.

If it doesn't hold it doesn't keep your rupture from coming back again—then it won't cost you a single cent.

The Only Thing Good Enough To Stand Such A Test.

You know as well as we that you can't tell anything about a truss or anything else for rupture merely by looking at it. That's the worst of it. A truss or so-called "appliance" may seem right when you look at it, but it may be utterly worthless.

The only way in the world you can make sure of exactly what you're getting is by a 60-day trial.

And our guaranteed rupture holder—the famous Clute Automatic Truss—is the only thing of any kind whatever for rupture that you can get on sixty days trial—the only thing good enough to stand such a trial and thorough test.

Something Nothing Else Does.

The Clute Automatic Massaging Truss is so utterly different from everything else for rupture that it has received only one separate patent. It provides the only cure ever discovered for ruptures, curing the rupture which is the real cause of rupture.

Just how it does that—entirely automatically—is explained in the Clute Truss.

Will Save You from Operation.

The Clute Truss has so thoroughly proved its merits that physicians in all parts of the world and surgeons in the U. S. Army and Navy now recommend it instead of advising operation. It has brought complete recovery in hundreds of cases after operation had proved a failure.

BRITISH PEER HEAD

Startling Statement Made in
House of Lords by Lord
Newton.

BY LA MARQUE DE FOTENOTY.

LORD NEWTON has made the sensational assertion in the House of Lords that one of its members is the owner of perhaps the leading professional usury concern in London.

It was made during the course of the recent debate on his bill compelling usurers to disclose their real names as well as their professional name.

AS OLD HE DOES NOT FEEL HE LEAVE POLITICAL ARENA

Rumors That He Is Tired of Burden Are Unfounded.

TO NAME ISAACS
AS CHIEF JUSTICE

Premier Will Not Leave Office
Until He Has Garnered Fruits of Parliament Act Which He Put Through in Face of Such Unexampled
Difficulty.

BY PHILLIP EVERETT.

London, July 19.—Seldom, if ever, has the air here been so full of political rumors as during the last few weeks. A fact which seems to show that the heat of the summer has played havoc with the brains of our Conservative editors and politicians, for all the rumors may invariably be traced back to the camp of the opposition.

The fall and collapse of the present government was confidently predicted as destined to take place long ago, and when the prophecy was not fulfilled, the political gossip began to talk of all the important changes that were to take place in the Cabinet. The most sensational of these predictions was that Mr. Asquith, tired with the burdens and responsibilities of his office, would resign after appointing himself Lord Chief Justice to succeed Lord Alverstone, who, as everybody knows, will never resume his seat on the bench. A successor will have to be found, but as the long court vacation is at hand, no new Lord Chief Justice will have to be nominated until October, and then, no matter how often the Tory press has predicted that Mr. Asquith would never dare do so, he will nominate Sir Rufus Isaacs for the vacant position. And no one of any importance will say a word against the appointment, for in all England there is no man more fit to hold this high office than the present Attorney-General. In a month or two all the artificial indignation stirred up by the Marconi affair will have completely disappeared.

It is curious to see my readers on the very day when Mr. Asquith has not the slightest intention of leaving the political arena now, and every body who knows him knows that this is so. The statesman who, in face of unexampled difficulties, passed the Parliament Act, is not going to leave his post until the fruits of that great measure are garnered. A distinguished colleague of Mr. Asquith in the present Cabinet said a few weeks ago: "Loyalty is one of the brightest jewels in the crown of the Prime Minister's character." That loyalty will not be wanting to Mr. Asquith in the present crisis. He will stand by his post until the fruits of that great measure are garnered. That loyalty will not be wanting to Mr. Asquith in the present crisis. He will stand by his post until the fruits of that great measure are garnered.

Other rumors assert that a breach is imminent between the government and the Labor party, but these are no more true than the others. Labor members support the government because it is the most democratic government that has ever held office in this country. Except on women's suffrage and the question of direct taxation—two admittedly important exceptions—Labor has seldom had occasion to quarrel with the present government. On both these important questions a large number of Liberal members are in absolute accord with the Labor party. To the government, the presence of the Labor members acts as a constant spur; it is a perpetual reminder to ministers that they must not weary in well doing.

In the House of Commons the Tories are constantly endeavoring to get the seat of the government, but they are no more true than the others. Labor members support the government because it is the most democratic government that has ever held office in this country. On both these important questions a large number of Liberal members are in absolute accord with the Labor party. To the government, the presence of the Labor members acts as a constant spur; it is a perpetual reminder to ministers that they must not weary in well doing.

The other day, when an important post-office bill was under review, the Tories, reappearing in their minds with needless apprehension, telegrams were hurriedly despatched to call the lancers to the scene of action. Meanwhile, faithful radicals were put up to talk against time and hope, but they did not. The Tories might arrive. And when the feared hour arrived there was a majority of 200, a result which provoked from some of the lazy ones a flood of language which would not have been quite pardonable if it had been spoken in the floor of the House. The poor whips, however, are not to blame. It is the business of the ministerialists never to be absent unpaired, as it is the business of the whips to keep them up to the mark. And it is not to be remembered that a big majority does not by any means prove that a plot was not being engineered, as there is such a thing as not "calling up the reserves" when it is seen that the game is not going to succeed.
